December 6 - 13, 2010

DAY ONE: December 6

Arrive at Key West International Airport, welcome to Paradise! You will be met by your Clean Getaway Travel Representative and transferred to your home for the next 7 days. The Southernmost Mansion sits right on the Atlantic Ocean and is one of the most exquisite examples of Victorian architecture in the whole country. Settle in and get ready for a welcome reception tonight with a poolside Caribbean buffet and island entertainment. Relax, unwind, hear exciting details of the adventures to come and get to know your fellow travelers and hosts.

DAY TWO: December 7

After breakfast there will be a morning meeting poolside for those who choose to attend. Then we'll gather together and hop aboard the Old Town Trolley for a fascinating tour of old town Key West. You'll learn almost all there is to know about this colorful island, brush up on your history and hear some amusing anecdotes that are guaranteed to peak your interest. All while enjoying Key West's exotic flora & fauna and quaint architecture. On to a custom bike fitting at Island Bicycles, work the kinks out, and enjoy lunch at your leisure. Tonight we head down to Mallory Square for the world famous Sunset Celebration ... complete with jugglers, pirates, escape artists; you never know who'll turn up for your entertainment! Tonight we dine as a group at a quaint local restaurant.

DAY THREE: December 8

This morning we get a new perspective on this island paradise when we take an exhilarating jet ski tour around Key West! Dry off and join us for an exclusive Caribbean cooking class with top chef John Correa from Café Sole. First we shop, then we chop, then we learn, then we cook, and then we EAT! A rare opportunity indeed. Rest up, take a swim, or enjoy some world class shopping. Tonight we invite you to join us a meeting at the local clubhouse. Enjoy dinner on your own, ask us for suggestions.

DAY FOUR: December 9

After our optional morning meeting, we take a stroll to another world as we enter the Butterfly Conservatory. Learn all about our islands flying residents with rare butterflies and birds, it's a tropical wonderland, sure to delight one and all. Relax poolside, hit the beach, the afternoon is yours. Tonight, after dining together in another local favorite, we wait for sundown. As darkness falls, we visit some "haunts" and join some shadowy characters on the Key West Ghost Tour ... not for the fainthearted, we might even see a ghost!

DAY FIVE: December 10

Get ready for action! We are heading out to sea on a state-of-the-art catamaran with Fury Water Adventures. Sail out to the reef for a relaxing snorkeling and sailing experience. See our reef up close and personal, make friends with some fish and enjoy the beautiful clear waters of the Florida Keys. You will have the rest of the day to relax like a local "island style." We will be happy to arrange any optional excursion your heart desires, at the special rates negotiated just for our group. You are welcome to join us at a meeting at the local clubhouse. Enjoy dinner on your own.

DAY SIX: December 11

Morning meeting? If you'd like to join us, of course. Spend some time today exploring, maybe a bike ride through Key West's winding streets checking out the unique Conch houses. Get ready for dinner with the group at yet another top-rated local restaurant. Then, boys will be girls, and you will not believe your eyes when we take in an extraordinary show by some of Key West's finest female impersonators.

DAY SEVEN: December 12

Take some time this morning to catch up on your souvenir shopping. Join us for a noon meeting if you like, visit one of your favorite lunch spots and get ready for tall ships and tapas! We have chartered one of the Conch Republic's finest schooners for our farewell sunset cruise. We will enjoy a delicious four-course tapas dinner as we head out to sea with live music to sail by. Bask in the glow of the sunset and new found friends. Fellowship in paradise ... and life is good.
